

General Terms and Conditions of Business of TÜV Rheinland InterCert d.o.o.

1. Scope

- 1.1 These General Terms and Conditions of Business ("General Terms") apply to all service contracts ("Services") concluded between TÜV Rheinland InterCert d.o.o. ("TRIC") as a service provider and another person as a service provider ("Client").

The following terms and conditions apply to agreed services including consultancy services, information, deliveries and similar services as well as ancillary services and other secondary obligations provided within the scope of contract performance.

These General Terms are an integral part of any offer for the provision of a Service sent by a TÜV Rheinland InterCert d.o.o to a person ("Offer"), as well as any individual contract concluded by TÜV Rheinland InterCert d.o.o with the recipient of services, whether such individual agreement is concluded in written form, verbally or implicitly all cases, "Contract").

- 1.2 The client's General Terms and Conditions of Business, including the client's Terms and Conditions of Purchasing, if any, shall not apply and shall hereby be expressly excluded. No contractual terms and conditions of the client shall form part of the contract even if TRIC does not explicitly object to them.

2. Quotations

Unless otherwise agreed, all quotations submitted by TRIC shall be subject to change without notice, until the person, who has received the quotation letter, sends the written acceptance of the quotation letter to TRIC

3. Coming into effect and duration of contracts

- 3.1 The contract shall come into effect for the agreed term upon the quotation letter of TRIC or a separate contractual document being signed by both contracting parties, or upon the works requested by the client being carried out by TRIC if the client instructs TRIC without receiving a prior quotation from TRIC (quotation), TRIC – in its sole discretion – entitled to accept the order by giving written notice of such acceptance (including notice sent via electronic means) or by performing the requested services.
- 3.2 The contract term starts upon the coming into effect of the contract in accordance with article 3.1 and shall continue for the term agreed in the contract.
- 3.3 If the contract provides for an extension of the contract term, the contract term will be extended by the term provided for in the contract unless terminated in writing by either party with a six-week notice to the end of the contractual term.

4. Scope of services

- 4.1 The scope of the services shall be decided solely by a unanimous declaration issued by both parties. If no such declaration exists, then the written confirmation of order by TRIC shall be decisive.
- 4.2 The agreed services shall be performed in compliance with the regulations in force at the time the contract is entered into.
- 4.3 Furthermore, TRIC is entitled to determine (in its sole discretion) the method and nature of the assessment unless otherwise agreed in writing or if mandatory provisions require a specific procedure to be followed.
- 4.4 On execution of the work there shall be no simultaneous assumption of any guarantee of the correctness (proper quality) and working order of either tested or examined parts nor of the installation as a whole and its upstream and/or downstream processes, organisations, use and application in accordance with regulations, nor of the systems on which the installation is based; in particular, no responsibility shall be assumed for the construction, selection of materials and assembly of installations examined, nor for their use and application in accordance with regulations unless these questions are expressly covered by the contract.

- 4.5 In the case of inspection work, TRIC shall not be responsible for the accuracy or checking of the safety programmes or safety regulations on which the inspections are based, unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing.

5. Performance periods/dates

- 5.1 The contractually agreed periods and dates of performance are based on estimates of the work involved which are prepared in line with the details provided by the client. They shall only be binding if confirmed as binding by TRIC in writing.
- 5.2 If binding periods of performance have been agreed, these periods shall not commence until the client has submitted all required documents to TRIC This also applies, even without express approval by the client, to all extensions of agreed dates for performance not caused by TRIC

6. The client's obligation to cooperate

- 6.1 The client shall guarantee that all cooperation required on its part, its agents or third parties will be provided in good time and at no cost to TRIC.
- 6.2 Design documents, supplies, auxiliary staff, etc. necessary for performance of the services shall be made available free of charge by the client. Moreover, collaborative action of the client must be undertaken in accordance with legal provisions, standards, safety regulations and accident prevention instructions.
- 6.3 The client shall bear any additional cost incurred on account of work having to be redone or being delayed as a result of late, incorrect or incomplete information or lack of proper cooperation. Even where a fixed or maximum price is agreed, TRIC shall be entitled to charge extra for such additional expense.

7. Invoicing of work

- 7.1 If the scope of performance is not laid down in writing when the order is placed, invoicing shall be based on costs incurred. If no payment is agreed in writing, invoicing shall be in accordance with the TRIC price list valid at the time of performance.
- 7.2 Unless otherwise agreed, work shall be invoiced according to the progress of the work.
- 7.3 If the execution of an order extends over more than one month and the value of the contract or the agreed fixed price exceeds €2,500.00 TRIC may demand payments on account or in instalments.

8. Payment terms

- 8.1 All invoice amounts shall be due for payment within 8 days from the date of the invoice.
- 8.2 Payments shall be made to the bank account of TRIC as indicated on the invoice, stating the invoice and customer numbers.
- 8.3 In cases of default of payment, TRIC shall be entitled to claim default interest according to law. At the same time, TRIC reserves the right to claim further damages.
- 8.4 Should the client default in payment of the invoice despite being granted a reasonable grace period, TRIC shall be entitled to cancel the contract, withdraw the certificate, claim damages for non-performance and refuse to continue performance of the contract.

- 8.5 The provisions set forth in article 8.4 shall also apply in cases involving returned cheques, cessation of payment, commencement of insolvency proceedings against the client's assets or cases in which the commencement of insolvency proceedings has been dismissed due to lack of assets.

- 8.6 Objections to the invoices of TRIC shall be submitted in writing within two weeks of receipt of the invoice.

- 8.7 TRIC shall be entitled to demand appropriate advance payments.

- 8.8 TRIC shall be entitled to raise its fees at the beginning of a month if overheads and/or purchase costs have increased. In this case, TRIC shall notify the client in writing of the rise in fees. This notification shall be issued one month prior to the date on which the rise in fees shall come into effect (period of notice of changes in fees). If the rise in fees remains under 5% per contractual year, the client shall not have any special right of termination. If the rise in fees exceeds 5% per contractual year, the client shall be entitled to terminate the contractual relationship by the end of the period of notice of changes in fees. If the contract is not terminated, the changed fees shall be deemed to have been agreed upon expiry of the above period.

- 8.9 Only legally established and undisputed claims may be offset against claims by TRIC

9. Acceptance

- 9.1 Any part of the work ordered which is complete in itself may be presented by TRIC for acceptance as an instalment. The client shall be obliged to accept it immediately.
- 9.2 If the client fails to fulfil its acceptance obligation immediately, acceptance shall be deemed to have taken place 1 month after performance of the work if TRIC has specifically made the client aware of the aforementioned deadline upon performance of the service.

10. Confidentiality

- 10.1 For the purpose of this agreement, "confidential information" means all information, documents, images, drawings, know-how, data, samples and project documentation which one party (the "disclosing party") hands over, transfers or otherwise discloses to the other party (the "receiving party"). Confidential information also includes paper copies and electronic copies of such information.
- 10.2 The disclosing party shall mark all confidential information disclosed in written form as confidential before passing it on to the receiving party. The same applies to confidential information transmitted by e-mail. If confidential information is disclosed orally, the receiving party shall be appropriately informed in advance.
- 10.3 All confidential information which the disclosing party transmits or otherwise discloses to the receiving party in accordance with this agreement:
- may only be used by the receiving party for the purposes of performing the purpose of the contract, unless expressly otherwise agreed in writing with the disclosing party;
 - may not be copied, distributed, published or otherwise disclosed by the receiving party, unless this is necessary for fulfilling the purpose of the contract or TRIC is required to pass on confidential information, inspection reports or documentation to the authorities or third parties that are involved in the performance of the contract;

- c) must be treated by the receiving party with the same level of confidentiality as the receiving party uses to protect its own confidential information, but never with a lesser level of confidentiality than that which is objectively required.
- 10.4 The receiving party shall disclose any confidential information received from the disclosing party only to those of its employees who need this information to perform the services required for the subject matter of this contract. The receiving party undertakes to oblige these employees to observe the same level of secrecy as set forth in this confidentiality clause.
- 10.5 Information for which the receiving party can furnish proof that:
- it was generally known at the time of disclosure or has become general knowledge without violation of this agreement; or
 - it was disclosed to the receiving party by a third party entitled to disclose this information; or
 - the receiving party already possessed this information prior to disclosure by the disclosing party; or
 - the receiving party developed it itself, irrespective of disclosure by the disclosing party, shall not be deemed to constitute "confidential information" as defined in this agreement.
- 10.6 All confidential information shall remain the property of the disclosing party. The receiving party hereby agrees to immediately (i) return all confidential information, including all copies, to the disclosing party, and/or, on request by the disclosing party, to (ii) destroy all confidential information, including all copies, and confirm the destruction of this confidential information to the disclosing party in writing, at any time if so requested by the disclosing party but at the latest and without special request after termination or expiry of this contract. This does not extend to include reports and certificates prepared for the client solely for the purpose of fulfilling the obligations under this contract, which shall remain with the client. However, TRIC is entitled to make file copies of such reports, certificates and confidential information that forms the basis for preparing these reports and certificates in order to evidence the correctness of its results and for general documentation purposes.
- 10.7 From the start of this contract and for a period of three years after termination or expiry of this contract, the receiving party shall maintain strict secrecy of all confidential information and shall not disclose this information to any third parties or use it for itself.
- ### 11. Copyrights
- 11.1 TRIC shall retain all exclusive and joint copyrights in the expert reports, test results, calculations, presentations etc. prepared by TRIC
- 11.2 The client may only use expert reports, test results, calculations, presentations etc. prepared within the scope of the contract for the contractually agreed purpose.
- 11.3 The client may use test reports, test results, expert reports, etc. only complete and unshortened. Any publication or duplication for advertising purposes needs the prior written approval of TRIC
- ### 12. Liability of TÜV Rheinland InterCert d.o.o.
- 12.1. TRIC accepts responsibility only for services rendered on the basis of a written contract or accepted offer. TRIC is obliged to make financial compensation to the Client in case of any material or financial damage caused by representatives and / or employees of TRIC.
- The maximum amount for the financial compensation of damages is EUR 20 000 unless otherwise stated in the contract or in the rules of the relevant certification system
- 12.2 The stated conditions for compensation of the Client's damages referred to in Article 12.1 shall not be applied in cases where the damage is intentionally caused, caused by negligence or that it was caused by the commission of a criminal offense.
- 12.3 TRIC is responsible only for intent and gross negligence, except in cases that constitute a significant breach of contract when TRIC is responsible for plain negligence as well. For the purposes of this contractual provision, "significant breach of contract" is a failure to fulfill an essential contractual obligation, the fulfillment of which allows the contract to be properly executed and for which the Client objectively and reasonably expects to be fulfilled. The liability of the TRIC for violation of the Contract will in any case be limited to the amount of damage specified in item 12.1.
- 12.4 TRIC shall not be liable for the damage caused by a person made available to the Client for the purpose of providing support and cooperation in the execution of services.
- The Client shall, without delay, upon receipt of the written request of TRIC, indemnify TRIC on all claims that may possibly third parties have against TRIC in connection with the act of persons who the Client made available for the purpose of providing support and cooperation in the execution of services
- 12.5 The limitation periods for claims for damages shall be based on statutory provisions.
- 12.6 None of the provisions of this article 12 changes the burden of proof to the disadvantage of the client.
- ### 13. Partial invalidity, written form, place of jurisdiction
- 13.1 The procedure related to complaints and appeals will be delivered to the Client at his request.
- 13.2 No ancillary agreements to this contract have been concluded.
- 13.3 All amendments and supplements must be in writing in order to be effective; this also applies to amendments and supplements to the requirement for the written form.
- 13.4 Should one or several of the provisions under this general terms or contract be or become ineffective, the contracting parties shall replace the invalid provision with a legally valid provision that comes closest to the content of the invalid provision in legal and commercial terms.
- 13.5 For all disputes arising out of or in connection with the contract, the Commercial Court in Belgrade is competent. The contract is subject to the substantive law of the Republic of Serbia without the application of collision standards
